ping point by some disease or deraugement peculiar to their sex. They fail to realize, perhaps, what is the cause of all their wretchedness and weakness. Or they shrink from the ordinary method of "local treatment," which is after all generally useless.

All women should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a perfect unfailing specific for their delicate ailments. It cures naturally and scientifically by removing the internal source of the difficulty. It restores health and strength both to the special organism and the entire nervous system. It is the most wonderful builder-up of energy and nerve force for young women and prospective mothers.

It is the only medicine of its kind prepared by a regularly graduated physician, a skilled, experienced specialist. Dr. Pierce has been for nearly thirty years chief consulting physician of the invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. Any woman may consult him either personally of by letter, free of charge.

SIGNS AND OMENS.

"All those who have not tasted strawberries before this season must wish as they take the first one," said a pretty young hostess of a Drexel boulevard house as she entertained a large company of girls at breakfast one morning recently.

"What is the sign," asked a yellow haired girl at her left. That it could be anything else than a "sign" never occurred to the bouquet of buds and blossoms gathered about the big round

"Oh, whatever you wish for when you taste fruit for the first time each season comes as true as life," answered the young woman earnestly from the head of the table.

"Yes, she is just about ill over it," responded the young woman, as she arranged her bunch of violets so that they looked a trifle larger. "She knows now that it is no good for her to try to do the slight of the the slightest thing. She has just got to have bad luck for seven years. It is just terrible to think of! Just imagine all the horrible things that can happen in seven years! It's a frightfully long time, even with good luck, and Hat, was so popular too. She will be too old to have any fun after the seven years are over." Each girl looked sympathetic for at least a moment, and then the girl with a blue stock asked:

can't avoid the bad luck and there is no use trying. Why, the days I see a pin lying with its point toward me I might as well give up and go to bed. I just have bad luck in everything I attempt to do. If I go to my French lesson my teacher corrects every other word I say, and if I attempt to play for anyone I am sure to miss half the notes.

RESSETT LACE SHOES,

That it was just as wanton a taking of life to open an umbrella in the house another young woman asserted. It meant death, and sure death, and someone had to suffer if the family price possessed a creature so thoughtless as to commit such an act. To lay an um-brella on a bed was asserted as bad luck, but no death was said to attach itself to the deed. But death always followed the howling of a dog or the et followed the howling of a dog or the et fort of a bird to gain admittance into a house through a mind with the following through a mind with the following through the following house through a window.
